STLM scoops another award

The Steve Tshwete Local Municipality is proud to have been conferred the ZK Mathews Award by President Jacob Zuma during the January 8 Statement at the 104th ANC gathering in Rustenburg.

Service delivery excellence and proper management of finances saw the municipality topping all ANC led municipalities in the country for 2015. In 2007 STLM was crowned runner up of the award and Nkangala as the overall winner.

This award was named after one of the prominent black academics in South Africa, Prof Zachariah Keodirelang "ZK" Matthews, who lectured at the South African Native College, where many future leaders of the African continent were his students.

The award proves that STLM continues to rise up to be amongst the best performers in delivering services to the community and keep its winning ways in sectors, as required by local government.

The runner-up of the 2015 ZK Mathews Award is the Sarah Baartman Municipality in the Eastern Cape.
