Traffic Law Enforcement statistics for Easter Arrive Alive Campaign

The Steve Tshwete Local Municipality Traffic Law Enforcement, Mpumalanga Provincial Traffic and South African Police Services launched the Easter Arrive Alive campaign at Walter Sisulu and Hobson Street (R 555).

The emphasis on the campaign was on overload control public transport permits, speeding, checking of outstanding fines, driving under the influence of alcohol and other intoxicating substances and vehicle and driver fitness

Traffic Statistics for Easter Arrive Alive Campaign from 24 – 28 March. The breakdown as compared to the previous year Easter Arrive Alive Campaign is as follows;

YEAR	DRUNKEN DRIVING	WARRANT OF ARREST	SPEED LAW ENFORCEMENT	GENERAL OFFENCES	MVA
2015	18	118	82	264	65
2016	24	72	66	349	32

The arrive alive campaign aims at reducing the number of road traffic accidents in general, improving road user compliance with traffic laws and sought to encourage motorists to be responsible and finish their journey without regrets.
