Long Service Awards to celebrate Public Service Month

In celebration of the Public Service Month, the Steve Tshwete Municipality will be honouring employees with Long Service Awards on Friday 23 September 2016 at Sydney Choma Banquet Hall.

The municipality will honour three employees who will receive their 40-year awards, five employees who have served 30 years, eight employees who have served 20 years and 44 employees who will receive their 10-year awards.

Public Service Month is celebrated every year during September. It is part of the Batho Pele Revitalisation strategy to instil and rebuild good ethics, morale and pride among public servants. It is used to highlight government services, dedication, commitment and excellence in the delivery of services to the public.

The municipality wants to encourage employees and first time recipients of the awards to continue to render loyal service, not only to their respective departments but also to the community they are serving.
