MEDIA RELEASE

Progress at O.R. Tambo Street

On 30 June block b of the currently renovated O.R. Tambo street is expected to be completed. Construction on this block, which is divided by SADC and Bhimy Damane streets was kick started 23 March this year. This after the block A which is divided by Cowen Ntuli and SADC streets was completed on 22 March 2011. Construction for the last block will kick start on 1st July 2011. This block of O.R Tambo street is being crossed by Bhimy Damane and Joubert Streets respectively. O.R. Tambo street, which is the hub of business in Central Business District and consisting of major banks, was identified by the municipality to be renovated to meet the requirements of urban renewal programmes. After the renovations, O.R. Tambo street will have enough parking space, side walking pavements as well as a number of block pedestrian crossings.

Yours faithfully

W.D. Fouché
Municipal Manager
