Media release

Recycling workshop to benefit formal and informal recyclers

In a continued effort to raise awareness and encourage recycling, the Steve Tshwete Municipality will host the Recycling Workshop on 28 September at Adelaide Tambo Community Hall.

The involvement of business and schools to improve on recycling will in the long-term benefit learners, and ultimately the communities. Recycling can be a great contributor to the South African economy with job creation opportunities and direct benefits to the environment.

Recent awards that recognize greening initiatives by the municipality includes the Arbour City Awards, the Editor's Choice Award at the Mail and Guardian, Greening the Future Awards 2016 and the 2016 first runner-up for the greenest local municipality in South Africa.
