Casual labours move to new standpoint

The Steve Tshwete Local Municipality has approved land behind the Municipality as the daily standpoint for casual labourers. Labourers seeking work will be obliged to use the new site from 1 December. It was decided to move the jobseekers from their standpoint in Laver Street as it is a no stopping area for vehicles.

It has become dangerous for job seekers as drivers idle their vehicles ready to move off, causing accidents and injuries. Law Enforcement will be strengthening enforcement and monitoring activities in Laver Street from 1 December to ensure that job seekers move to the new site.

Drivers stopping at Laver Street to pick up job seekers will be heavily fined.
