MEDIA RELEASE:

STEVE TSHWETE SCOOPS BEST LEARNING WORK PLACE OF THE YEAR AWARD.

A number of researches have proven that employees spend most of their life time at work. Now imagine your workplace in a state of being the worst place to work in, a daily nightmare, isn't? Meanwhile employees at Steve Tshwete Local Municipality can pride themselves for working in the best place in the province in comparison to other municipalities.

This became evident on 10 February in Nelspruit, White River, where the municipality was given the Best Working Place title by the Local Government Sector Education and Training Authority (LGSETA) in conjunction with the South African Local Government Association (SALGA) in Mpumalanga and the provincial Department of Cooperative Governance and Traditional Affairs (Cogta). The prize package included a R30 000 cheque and a trophy. Early this year on 20 January, the municipality was also awarded the Best Skills Development Facilitator, and the Best Learning Work Place certificates respectively at the Nkangala Skills Colloquium.
