Mayor spearheads job summit to discuss constructive job creation

Executive Mayor, Mike Masina invites businesses, business chambers, NGOs, skills developers, youth organisations, organised unemployment structures and relevant stakeholders to a Job Summit on 11 March 2015, to discuss the urgent need to create jobs and skill people for local industry.

“Unemployment is growing and our youth do not even have the chance to get experiential training due to the lack of jobs. It is no longer an issue of talking about what needs to be done, we need to start putting plans on the table and implement them.”

The Job Summit will be held at the Banquet Hall on 11 March 2015, from 09:00 where the Mayor and stakeholders from the private/public sector will discuss the way forward.
