Media release

#Libraries 4Life Long Learning

Steve Tshwete Local Municipality will be launching the annual Library week on 12 March 2016, with the theme #Libraries4LifelongLearning. The launch will start at 09:00 with a parade from eMhluzi mall and end at Themba Senamela Stadium.

The “#Libraries4LifelongLearning” highlights ways in which learning participation and outcomes are understood and appreciated. It provides guidance on the role of libraries in South Africa and it ensures that all citizens have equitable access, quality information and receive advice about learning opportunities.

During the library week’s celebrations, local libraries will embark on different activities that will take place as follows:

- Monday 14 March (Komati, Hendrina, Pullenshope and Rietkuil) giving cupcakes to library users.
- Tuesday 15 March (Eastdene and Nazareth) induct business people/parents on how important it is to invest and support libraries.
- Wednesday 16 March (Doornkop, Mhluzi, Chromeville and Ext 7) invite pre-School for library Orientation day.
- Thursday 17 March (Gerald Sekoto) Dialogue on racism.

The current users of the Steve Tshwete Local Municipality Libraries stand at 10,179.
