Enrol your future @ your library

To promote and encourage learners to read the Steve Tshwete Library Services will embark on an outreach in February to visit schools. The outreach will be conducted under the theme “Enrol your future @ your library”. The schools in Komati, Koorfontein area and surrounding farms will be visited as follows:

The launch will take place in Komati library at 09:00 on Thursday 4 February, which then precede with schools visits on the latter mentioned farms area. The municipality has prioritised the areas in the farms to fully utilise library services when it comes to free internet access and Wi-Fi services. The Komati library will now function from Monday to Friday. The newly appointed librarian will also visits local crèche to distribute books to the children.

Steve Tshwete library membership is free. Community members can visit their nearest library to apply for membership. An ID document and proof of residence will be needed for registration. For more information call 013 249 7314.
