Cultural extravaganza on Day of Reconciliation

The Steve Tshwete Municipality, in partnership with the Department of Arts and Culture and Masali Music School in Middelburg are hosting a Heritage Cultural Celebration on the Day of Reconciliation on 16 December, at the Kees Taljaard Stadium from 10:00 to 18:00.

The aim of the celebration is to bring people together in diversity on Reconciliation Day.

Over 1000 people are expected to attend the day-long celebration, which will be filled with performing groups from different cultures in the community, sharing their talents in song, dance and poetry, through Hip Hop, House Music, Gospel, traditional and multidisciplinary dancing and poetry to feed the soul.

There will also be a number of diverse food and beverage stalls at the stadium to feed hungry tummies throughout the day.
