MEDIA RELEASE:

Adelaide Tambo centre expanded

The second phase of construction of the Adelaide Tambo Centre in Extension 7, Mhluzi is well under way and includes a clubhouse and a double storey municipal office block.

This is another tangible and practical step in the process of transforming the lives of the community, by conveniently delivering municipal services "at the doorstep" and saving residents the cost, time and trouble of having to travel the long distance to town to have their needs attended to.

The first significant step in this direction was taken in May 2008 with the completion of phase one, when a library and hall was officially handed over.

An amount of R18 000 000.00 has been allocated for the construction which started in August last year.

The office complex has been designed for multi-purpose use, with open plan interior spaces which allow occupants to create their own work spaces, in line with their needs.

For more inquiries, please contact Prudence Magutle at 013 249 7053 / 082 338 3821 or email p.magutle@stevetshwetelm.gov.za

Yours faithfully
