As we approach the end of another year, I want to take this moment to usher in the festive season. For many of us, the holidays are a time when we gather together with our loved ones and celebrate the joys of life. It is a time of year when we reminisce on the days and months gone by, a time of year when we look back on the things that we are most thankful for.

During this time, we must also remember those who are less fortunate and may not have the privilege to celebrate in the way that we are able to. Let us invoke the spirit of the season by opening our hearts and share by lending a helping hand to those who need it the most.

I would like to encourage all citizens to take this moment to effect positive change within our communities and our environment.

I hope that 2024 will be a year filled with joy and prosperity. May the Almighty God bless and keep each one of you safe.

Let us meet again on 2 January 2024.
